Great Lent is upon us. As a reminder, the Church prescribes the following eating rules for this Fast: we abstain from meat, meat products, eggs, dairy products, fish with backbones, wine, and olive oil. Wine and olive oil are permitted on weekends. Remember, fasting is not an end in itself, nor simply a means to an end, but the practical enacting of the virtues of self-control, contentment, temperance, and moderation, among others, by cooperating with the energies, the grace, of God. Abstinence from certain foods is intended as spiritual preparation for an experience of deeper communion with God. Each person is a unity of body and soul. A right spiritual diet and a discipline of fasting go together and strengthen each other. Just as prayer benefits not only the soul but also the body, so also fasting from foods benefits not only the body but also the soul. As St. Isaac the Syrian teaches, there can be no knowledge of the mysteries of God on a full stomach. Fasting and prayer make us more sensitive to God's personal presence in our daily lives.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Gregory if you need directions. Please make every effort to attend these special Lenten Services as part of your devotional efforts during the Great Fast. To receive Holy Communion at a LPSG (the entire purpose of the Service!), one should take a light meal at midday, and fast completely after that until the Service. An Orthodox Christian, who, after proper preparation, regularly participates in the Mystery of Holy Eucharist, should also participate in the Mystery of Repentance, making their Confession regularly. At a minimum, the fathers of the Church recommend making one's Confession four times per year- once during each of the Fasting Periods (Great Lent, Apostle's Fast, Dormition Fast, Nativity Fast), in addition to anytime that sin weighs heavily upon one's soul. Our Bishops, however, strongly encourage monthly Confession for those who partake of the Holy Mystery of Communion on a weekly basis. In accordance with the canons of the Church, anyone who misses 3 consecutive Sunday Liturgies must make their Confession prior to reception of Holy Communion. Confessions will be heard on Sunday mornings just prior to the beginning of Divine Liturgy during the chanting of the Hours, or by appointment with Fr. Gregory.

Anointing with the Oil of Holy Unction for healing is available for Orthodox Christians at the conclusion of each Divine Liturgy. Please come forward if you wish to be anointed.
